

To whom it may concern:

I have serious concerns about Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election without offering equal time to airing a pro-Kerry (or anti-Bush) documentary such as Fahrenheit 9/11.

Somehow this does not seem to be in keeping with the spirit of fair play in elections that made this country great.

Please take the responsible step of requiring Sinclair Broadcasting to wait until after the election to show it's film; or require that they offer Senator Kerry equal time in an equally favorable time slot.

Thank you.
